

NEWSLETTER

#5 JANUARY 2016

ZEMedS article from the the International Building Physics Conference - Torino published in Energy Procedia

11 January 2016

The article Paving the way to nearly zero energy schools in Mediterranean region- ZEMedS project, deals with the current situation of school buildings in ZEMedS partners countries (France, Greece, Italy and Spain) >>read more

ZEMedS trainings in France

31 november 2015

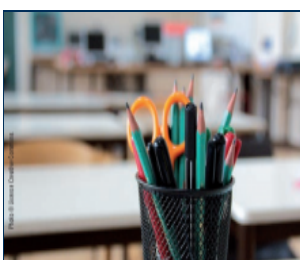

13 workshops were held in all the French Mediterranean area. The aim was to raise awareness of ZEMedS approach and distribute the toolkits to project holders. >>read more

ZEMedS Rome

3 december 2015

The national event held in Rome, on 3-4 December was the last of a series of training events which took place in Italy within the framework of ZEMedS project, a 3-year project co-funded by the European Commission through the Intelligent Energy Europe Programme (IEE) >>read more

ZEMedS National CapacityBuilding Event - France

6 october 2015

Two days of conferences, workshops and visits were dedicated to the renovation of schools in Mediterranean climate in the presence of elected officials, architects, engineers and other professionals. >>read more

ZEMedS trainings in Spain

20 january 2016

On autumn 2015, Eurecat has been developing a set of trainings in order to promote the nZEB concept and the impacts in the new design models for our buildings. >>read more